Contributions to public administrations

A total of 24.6 euros out of every 100 that Telefónica collects overall is paid in taxes

Corporate Income Taxes accounted for 38% of borne tax, while 32% refers to other taxes and fees associated with our economic activity

Telefónica makes quantifiable economic and social contributions by paying taxes to the authorities of the different countries where it operates. The countries where tax payments are largest are precisely the jurisdictions in which Telefónica obtains its main income, namely Brazil, Spain and Argentina.

The total tax contributions of Telefónica in the financial year 2013 were 14,060 million euros, 4,792 million euros of which corresponds to taxes borne and 9,267 million euros to taxes collected. This means that for every 100 euros of Company turnover, 24.6 euros was dedicated to the payment of taxes, or 8.4 to taxes borne and 16.2 to taxes collected. These figures include the payment of taxes and other local fees such as operator general taxes, numbering fees, charges for using the public domain, fees to finance the Public Radio and Television in Spain, and other similar taxes in other countries. Payments spectrum is not included due to their different classification and accounting treatment.

Taxes on profits represent 38% of the total tax borne. Taxes on goods and services, which are mostly special levies on the telecoms sector, made up 32%, and taxes associated to employment made up 21%. Among the taxes collected, VAT stands out, representing 83% of the total.

The Company's tax contributions in Spain in 2013 were 3,443 million euros, or 24.5% of the total. The tax contribution ratio for Telefónica in Spain was 35.67%: that is, during 2013, Telefónica paid 36 euros out of every 100 euros of pre-tax profits generated in Spain, in taxes.

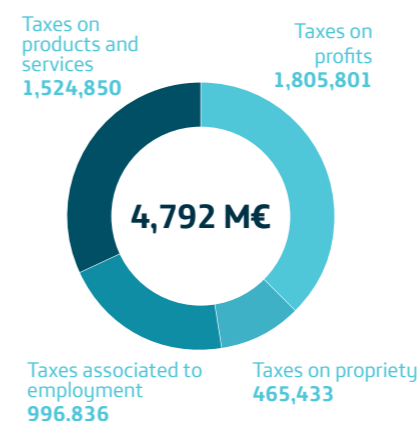

Out of every 100 euros of Total Value Distributed (*) by Telefónica in 2013, 51 euros were used to taxes.
